

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. ## PREFACE.

It seems unnecessary for the writer to give any further reason for this publication, than to say what is well known, that in many instances the inscriptions on the older stones in our cemeteries are difficult to decipher, and it will not be many years before those on the oldest stones will be entirely obliterated.

Persons who have been engaged in genealogical research are aware that the inscription on the tombstone is frequently the only record of death to be found, which adds to the importance of its preservation in some form.

This list includes all the stones now standing within the limits of the old burying ground, together with the first row of the addition of 1838. There are many graves unmarked by stones; some of them probably, having never had any, others having been destroyed.

It must be borne in mind that the variation in spelling of proper names and other words, is largely due to the fancy of the engraver, who apparently followed his own sweet will in the matter of orthography.

LOUIS A. WOODBURY.

Æt. 36.

Reader remember, think on thy fate,
Perhaps to-morrow will be to late
Now may the God of power and grace
Prepare thy Soul a happy place.

“Memento Mori.”

In Memory of

M<sup>rs</sup> MEHITABLE DUTCH,

Consort of

Rev. Ebenezer Dutch,

who departed this life

December Y<sup>e</sup> 29. AD. 1794

Ætat 33.

The memory of the past is blefsted
Blefsted are the dead which die in the Lord that they may rest from their labors
Willing rather to be absent from the body and to be present with the Lord.
This mortal should put on immortality.

REV.

EBENEZER DUTCH,

departed this life

Augst 4, 1813

Æt. 62.

As priests of old, So Christian pastors die,
But Christ the Lord, the great High priest on high
And the good Shepherd, ever lives, to save
Those for whose ransom his own life he gave
His church he ever will defend & feed
And bring to endless bliss a num'rous seed
Those pastors will a crown of glory wear
Who feed his lambs and sheep with faithful care.

Mrs. Ruth Ela,

formerly the wife of

Mr. John Sanders

died June 30th, 1806

Æt. 68.

Deaths sudden stroke dissolved my feeble frame
Reader prepare your fate may be the same
Renounce your sins by faith to Jesus fly
Then welcome death—tis gain for you to die.

THANKFUL FOOT

Aged 52 years

Such is the soul that leaves this mortal land,
 Fearless when the great master gives command,
 Death is the storm, She smiles to hear it roar
 And bids the tempest waft her to the shore.

died July, 17th 1797, Ætat. 22
Why should we start and fear to die?
What tim'rous worms we mortals are!
Death is the gate of endless Joy,
And yet we dread to enter there.
Jesus can make a dying bed
Feel soft as downy pillows are,
While on his breast I lean my head,
And breathe my life out sweetly there.

We scarce enjoy the balmy gift
But mourn the pleasure gone

Capt ELIPHALET HARDY

departed this life

march 25 1799

Ætat 79

Our years are feventy, if through ftrength fourscore
That strength foon fails, and we are seen no more,
But ah! how few e'er these fhort limits reach
Deaths gloomy enfings o'er this ground may teach,
By fin came death but Jefus died for men
Was bury'd and in triumph rofe again,
Sinners repent, Christians lift up your eyes,
Fight the good fight and win the glorious prise.

Mr Solomon Hardy,
Died Auguft 9th 1801,
in the 54 year of his age.

This facred truth let mortals learn;
Men made of duft to duft return:
Happy are thofe, who, born anew,
The narrow way to life purfue;
Who truft in Jefus, him confefs,
And humbly follow righteousnefs.
Profefsor, watch, and pray, and strive,
For fuddenly may death arrive.

Hitty
the wife of Aaron Hardy died April 28th 1804 :

Ætat 20.

Wasting by lingering disease she with calm resignation anticipated the approach of death, blessing God for the hope of life eternal through Jesus Christ, & elevated by love to the glorious Savior, she in raptures joined the sacred poet.

Hold me O Jesus in thy arms,
And cheer me with immortal charms,
Till I awake in realms above,
Forever to enjoy thy love.

One gentle sigh his fetters breaks
 We scarce can say "He's gone"
 Before the willing spirit takes
 Its mansion near the throne
 Faith strives, but all its efforts fail
 To trace the spirits flight
 No eye can pierce within the veil
 Which hides the world of light
 This much (and this is all) we know
 Saints are completely blest
 Have done with sin and care and wo

And in his Saviours bosom rests.

SACRED
to the Memory of
MR BRADSTREET PARKER
Who died April 18 1809
Æt 80

Dear bosom friend I sleep with thee
We are from bonds of clay set free
We've left this earth to climb the road
T' enjoy our Saviour & our God.

Long may our souls thy smiles enjoy
With angels round the throne
Forever live in sweet employ
And praise the eternal Son

SACRED
to the memory of
MISS POLLY PARKER,
daur of Mr. Moses &
Mrs Sarah Parker who died
May 29, 1810, Æt. 22.

A bright example of untainted youth,
Engaging manners, innocence and truth ;
Adorned with all the graces of the mind,
Meek, modest, mild, affectionate and kind ;
The blameless daughter, & the faithful friend,
Admired by all she found an early end.
O! ye who weep at her untimely doom,
Like her be ready for an early tomb!

CAPT. PHINEAS PARKER,
departed this life,
April 2 1811.
Æt. 56.

Earthly Cavern, to thy keeping
We commit our Brother's dust,
Keep it safely, softly sleeping,
Till our Lord demand thy trust.

CAPT. JOHN PARKER,
departed this life,
Augst 26, 1812.
Æt. 31.

Mortal, from all these graves thy frailty learn,
For dust thou art and wilt to dust return,
To wisdom earnestly thyself apply,
And through the grace of Christ prepare to die.
Friends and Physicians could not save
My mortal body from the grave,
Nor shall the grave confine me here,
When Christ commands me to appear.

SACRED

to the memory of

MISS PRISCILLA PARKER,
Who died May 2 AD 1813,
Æt. 19.

Just of thy word, in every thought sincere
Who knew no wish but what the world might hear
Of softest manners unaffected mind
Lover of peace & friend of human kind
Go live! for Heaven's eternal year is thine
Go and exalt thy moral to Divine
Yet false these tears, mortality's relief,
And till we share your joys forgive our grief.

MRS ABIGAIL PARKER

Relict of

Lieut Retier H Parker
died April 29 1816
Æt 64

Unveil thy bosom, faithful tomb
Take this new treasure to thy trust
And give these sacred relicts room
To seek a slumber in the dust

---

Nor pains nor grief nor anxious fears
Invade thy bounds, no mortal woes
Can reach the peaceful sleeper here
While angels watch the soft repose.
So Jesus slept, Gods dying son
Past thro' the grave and blest the bed
Rest here blest saint till from his throne
The morning break and pierce the shade.

Mr.
RETIER PARKER,
died Aug 20, 1817,
Æt. 38.

Let this vain world engage no more,
Behold the gaping tomb;
It bids you sieze the present hour.
Tomorrow death may come.

---

The voice of this alarming scene,
May every heart obey;
Nor be the heavenly warning vain,
Which calls to watch and pray.

Great God I own the sentence just

And nature must decay,
 I yield my body to the dust,
 To dwell with fellow-clay.
 Yet faith may triumph o'er the grave,
 And trample on the tombs
 My Jesus, my Redeemer lives,
 My God my Savior comes.

Deacon THOMAS TENNEY,

Ætat 67——

Some hearty friend shall drop his tear
 On our dry bones, and say,
 These once were strong as mine appear,
 And mine must be as they.
 Thus shall our mould'ring members teach
 What now our senses learn,
 For dust and ashes loudest preach
 Man's infinite concern.

Memento mori.

THE ADDITION OF 1838.

At a meeting of the citizens of the East Parish in Bradford held at the Academy on Monday evening April 30th 1838 to take into consideration the importance of enlarging and improving the burying ground in this place, and repairing the hearse and hearse house, Rev'd Gardner B. Perry was chosen chairman, Nath'l Ladd clerk.

Resolved that it is expedient to enlarge the burying ground in this place.

Voted to choose a committee of nine to ascertain the quantity of land necessary, and the price for which it can be obtained.

Rev'd Gardner B. Perry, Nathaniel Ladd, Doct. Jeremiah Spoford, Abner Hardy, William M. Rollins, Stephen Parker, Aaron Hardy, Benjamin Burbank, and William S. Balch Committee.

Voted that the Committee examine the hearse and hearse house and report what repairs are necessary at the adjournment of this meeting.

Voted that the clerk put up a notice of the adjournment of this meeting on the two Meeting-houses in this place. Voted to adjourn to Monday evening May 7 at 7 o'clock.

May 7 1838. Met agreeable to adjournment and heard the report of the Committee chosen at the last meeting to examine the burying ground.

Voted that the report be recommitted to the Committee for further consideration and that they report at the next meeting.

Voted to adjourn to Tuesday the 15th instant at 7 o'clock in the evening.

May 15 a meeting was held agreeable to adjournment. The committee made the following report:

The committee met at the place and after looking over the ground came to the unanimous conclusion that it was expedient to procure an addition to the lot now occupied, and upon enquiry found that Mr. William Balch is willing to part with land lying on the westerly side of the old yard in width about eight rods, and extending so far north as to make about one and one quarter acres at the very low price of ten dollars per acre. That he will part with a piece on the southerly end of the burying ground sufficiently wide for a carriage way, for five dollars, and also in order to give a convenient passage from the highway to the burying ground he will part with land and trees standing on it sufficient for this purpose in connection with what Mr Ira Hopkinson will accommodate us with, for five Dollars. The Committee have also received an offer of land on the north of the present burying ground from the heirs of the late Mr Nathaniel Wallingford, for the sum of twenty three Dollars. All of which the Committee consider as very reasonable and manifesting an accommodating disposition on the part of all those gentlemen, and they recommend to those interested an acceptance of those offers. The hearse house they find in great need of immediate repair, to which they would respectfully call the attention of the citizens. And that should the proposal of widening the passage to the ground go into effect it would be desirable to remove the building from its present location to one more convenient on the burying place. The Committee would recommend that the ground to be purchased should be laid out in lots twenty feet in length and seven and a half in width. And that any one who is disposed may on advancing a certain sum of money to be fixed upon have a space set off to him. The money so raised after paying for the land to be expended in making such improvements on the ground as a board of managers to be chosen for that purpose may think proper to effect, or for to meet the expenses upon the hearse house and carriages. In respect to the wheeled hearse the Committee are of the opinion that a four wheeled carriage should be provided on which the present body after undergoing some considerable repairs, particularly in the trimming might be hung. They think the sleigh hearse should be changed for one having double runners particularly on account of the great difficulty of turning one so long among the tomb stones, especially when the snow is deep. They understand that in several instances monumental stones have been injured and a few even broken down when turning the hearse among them.

To meet the expenses which these improvements may create, estimated at 250 Dollars we recommend the appointment of a Committee to circulate subscriptions through the Parish, that all may have an opportunity, which they believe will be thankfully embraced, to express their kind remembrance of friends gone before them, and to do what they can beforehand to prepare for their own decent burial. They suggest the propriety of appointing a Committee to take conveyance of the land in trust for all those interested and the conveyance to be made upon the condition that the land shall be used for a burying place and for purposes incidental to that and for no other purpose. In behalf of the committee.

G. B. PERRY.
